Defendants.

) Case No.: 2:13-bk-33057-ER

) Chapter 7

) Adv No.

) COMPLAINT FOR:
DETERMINATION THAT STUDENT
LOAN DEBT IS DISCHARGEABLE
PURSUANT TO 11 U.S.C. §523(a)(8)

Plaintiff/Debtor, Joyce Louise Garber alleges:

JURISDICTION

1. This Court has jurisdiction under 11 U.S.C. §523. Pursuant to LBR 7008, Plaintiff states that this adversary proceeding is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§157, 1334, and arising under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, case No. 2:13-bk-33057-ER.

2. This adversary proceeding is brought pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§523(a)(8) and 105 Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 7001.

3. This is a core proceeding within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. §§ 157(a), (b)(1), and (b)(2)(I). Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1409 by virtue of the Debtor's Chapter 7 bankruptcy case pending before the United States Bankruptcy Court of the Central District of California.

THE PARTIES

4. Plaintiff JOYCE LOUISE GARBER ("Plaintiff") is an individual residing in the County of Los Angeles, California and is the debtor in the instant bankruptcy proceeding.

5. The defendants herein, ACS EDUCATION SERVICES, NCO FINANCIAL SYSTEMS, INC., MRS BPO LLC, SALLIE MAE, INC., MRU HOLDINGS, INC., FIRSTMARK SERVICES, LLC, UNIVERSITY ACCOUNTING SERVICE, LLC, CONTINENTAL SERVICE GROUP, INC., DIVERSIFIED COLLECTION SERVICES, INC., GC SERVICES LIMITED PARTNERSHIP, and CREDIT COLLECTION SERVICES GROUP, INC. ("Defendants"), are creditors and parties in interest in the above-referenced bankruptcy proceeding who do business in California.

6. Plaintiff is informed and believe and thereon alleges that said Defendants made, hold, own, were assigned, or are servicing loans received by Plaintiff, some of which are all or parts are insured or guaranteed by governmental units for the payment of educational benefits.

7. Between approximately 1991 to 2006, Plaintiff entered into various agreements with Defendants and/or their predecessors in interest for student loans to finance her

1 undergraduate education at California State University at Stanislaus and her graduate nursing
2 education at Azusa Pacific University.

3 8. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that the outstanding student
4 loans, including penalties and interest, total approximately $596,271.00, in the aggregate.

5 9. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that a large majority of the 6 outstanding balance is accrued interest. Plaintiff is also informed and believes and thereon
7 alleges that some of the loans are wrongfully being collected by separate entities at the same
8 time. The loans have been sold and assigned such that it is impossible for Plaintiff to determine
9 who the rightful owners of the loans are at this time.

10
11 FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

12 (Determination that Student Loan Debt is Dischargeable pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §523(a)(8) -- 13 Against All Defendants)

14 10. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates herein by reference all the allegations
15 contained in the previous paragraphs (1 – 9), as though each and every allegation was set forth in 16 full herein.

17 11. After attending several junior colleges, Plaintiff attended and graduated from 18 California State University at Stanislaus in Turlock, California in 1991. Plaintiff believes she 19 took out no more than $50,000 in student loans during her undergraduate years, and she worked 20 throughout those years.

21 12. Plaintiff attended a graduate nursing program at Azusa Pacific University from 22 September 7, 2004, through July 28, 2006. Plaintiff was part of the first cohort of a new program
23 at Azusa Pacific University that it appears now may not have been fully accredited when she 24 began. Plaintiff's graduate nursing program was an accelerated graduate program with over 12
25 units 3 times a year, with two sessions in summer. She now believes she was misled by Asuza as 26 she did not obtain the degree she was promised.
27
28

1           13. Plaintiff was promised a Bachelors of Science in Nursing but was later denied this
2 degree, as were her classmates. The university said the failure to grant Bachelors of Science in
3 Nursing degrees (“BSN”) to Plaintiff and its other students had to do with fulfilling coursework
4 requirements. However, Plaintiff has at least one instructor in the program who disputes that 5 claim and says she and her classmates are entitled to receive their BSN degrees. In fact, now in 6 2013, the university is starting to award BSNs for the same work that Plaintiff did. She does not
7 believe that the university will retroactively award her a BSN.

8           14. Not having a BSN greatly limits the Plaintiff’s job possibilities. Although she did
9 not receive her BSN, she was eligible to acquire a Public Health Nursing Certificate and Test for 10 her Registered Nursing License. It is incredibly unusual not to have a degree in nursing yet still 11 have a nursing license, but this is the predicament Plaintiff finds herself in. She had to explain it 12 to the nursing board to even get licensed and she has had to explain it again repeatedly many 13 times since.

14           15. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that she took out no more
15 than a principal sum of $50,000 to $100,000 during graduate school at Asuza Pacific University.
16 However, due to default and compounded high interest, and/or the same loans being collected by 17 various collection agencies, the loan balances have practically quadrupled.

18           16. Prior to obtaining her graduate student loans, Plaintiff consulted a financial 19 planner to make sure she could afford the loans. She was assured she could. She was never 20 informed of the actual cost of her education, including how interest would accrue, especially 21 after a default.

22           17. Plaintiff made many payments on each one of her various student loans for many 23 years. Currently one of her Federal consolidated Sallie Mae loans is in forbearance.

24           18. Since 2009 the Plaintiff has been unemployed and under employed, and it has 25 been difficult to meet her obligations, including her student loan payments.
26
27
28

1           19.     In approximately February of 2012, the Plaintiff was diagnosed with breast
2 cancer. She went through surgery and chemotherapy. During this time she was incredibly ill and 3 could not work. Her loans went into default.

4           20.     Plaintiff is currently approximately 50 years old. In addition to her breast cancer,
5 she has a history of documented mental illness, which includes severe depression. Due to her
6 age, cancer diagnosis, mental health issues, and lack of the nursing degree she was promised, she
7 has had much difficulty finding work as a nurse. It is unlikely that the Plaintiff will ever find 8 permanent work. She has only managed to find temporary work, which pays very little.
9 Presently she is earning approximately $650 per month through a temp agency. She gets about 10 $1,219 per month from EDD. Both of the foregoing are not permanent. Her retirement savings
11 has nearly run out. As of the date of filing bankruptcy, she had about $19,000 in an IRA but that 12 is being depleted.

13           21.     Plaintiff has made a good faith effort to repay each and every one of her student
14 loans. Presently one of her federal Sallie Mae loans is in forbearance, while the others have gone
15 to collections.

16           22.     Based upon Plaintiff's current income and expenses, she cannot maintain a
17 minimal standard of living for herself if she is forced to repay her loans. She currently only 18 works as a temporary worker, earning approximately $650 per month, and the EDD payments of 19 approximately $1,219 per month will cease in the near future, while her living expenses are 20 approximately $3,450 per month, not including student loan payments! Her high expenses are 21 due in part to her medical issues. She can barely get by financially. The student loans are clearly 22 an undue hardship to Plaintiff.

23           23.     Plaintiff's current financial situation is likely to continue for a big part of the 24 repayment period, indeed for the remainder of her life.
25
26
27
28

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF

(For Equitable Reformation of Loan Terms and/or Loan Amount as permitted under the Bankruptcy Code -- Against All Defendants)

24. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates herein by reference all the allegations contained in the previous paragraphs (1 – 23), as though each and every allegation was set forth in full herein.

25. Alternatively, Plaintiff requests the Court to invoke its equitable powers to reform the terms of underlying student loan debts to a reasonable loan amount and/or interest rate which would relieve Plaintiff from undue hardships while enable the Plaintiff to maintain a minimum standard of living.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs respectfully request:

A. An order of this Court declaring and adjudicating that the Plaintiff's student loan obligations to Defendants constitute an undue hardship on them and that such obligations are therefore discharged pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §523(a)(8), in whole or in part;

B. Reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred by bringing this action; and

C. That this Court grants Plaintiff such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

INSTRUCTIONS

The filing of a bankruptcy case creates an "estate" under the jurisdiction of the bankruptcy court which consists of all of the property of the debtor, wherever that property is located. Because the bankruptcy estate is so extensive and the jurisdiction of the court so broad, there may be lawsuits over the property or property rights of the estate. There also may be lawsuits concerning the debtor's discharge. If such a lawsuit is filed in a bankruptcy court, it is called an adversary proceeding.

A party filing an adversary proceeding must also must complete and file Form 104, the Adversary Proceeding Cover Sheet, unless the party files the adversary proceeding electronically through the court's Case Management/Electronic Case Filing system (CM/ECF). (CM/ECF captures the information on Form 104 as part of the filing process.) When completed, the cover sheet summarizes basic information on the adversary proceeding. The clerk of court needs the information to process the adversary proceeding and prepare required statistical reports on court activity.

The cover sheet and the information contained on it do not replace or supplement the filing and service of pleadings or other papers as required by law, the Bankruptcy Rules, or the local rules of court. The cover sheet, which is largely self-explanatory, must be completed by the plaintiff's attorney (or by the plaintiff if the plaintiff is not represented by an attorney). A separate cover sheet must be submitted to the clerk for each complaint filed.

Plaintiffs and Defendants. Give the names of the plaintiffs and defendants exactly as they appear on the complaint.

Attorneys. Give the names and addresses of the attorneys, if known.

Party. Check the most appropriate box in the first column for the plaintiffs and the second column for the defendants.

Demand. Enter the dollar amount being demanded in the complaint.

Signature. This cover sheet must be signed by the attorney of record in the box on the second page of the form. If the plaintiff is represented by a law firm, a member of the firm must sign. If the plaintiff is pro se, that is, not presented by an attorney, the plaintiff must sign.
